

Job Description

Position Title: Family Life Director
Reports To: Campus Pastor
Revised: 06.18.2018

Department: Family Life
Status: Part-Time
Campus: Cambridge

Primary Purpose

NewPointe's Family Life Director is responsible for leading and setting vision for all family ministries (ages birth through eighteen years) at our Cambridge campus. This includes refining ministry environments, developing and nurturing leaders, effectively communicating strategy and vision, and developing and perfecting operating systems and teams within Family Life environments.

Key Result Areas (KRAs)

- Create a culture of leader reproduction, among both staff and volunteers, through displaying and encouraging positive morale and openness to change, ensuring ownership of the NewPointe mission and vision, and inspiring willingness to invest and invite. This includes overseeing the entire Family Life volunteer effort at the Cambridge campus, including recruiting, training, equipping, and care, to ensure an effective and healthy pipeline of volunteers.
- Establish and maintain a culture of apprenticeship in which volunteers seek to learn by working directly with people who are skilled in the areas in which they are looking to excel.
- Implement strategies to evaluate and upgrade ministry environments to ensure that they are efficient, effective, and deliver the desired outcomes.
- Champion special projects affecting Family Life at the Cambridge campus through prayer, organization, vision-casting, leadership, follow-through, and follow-up. Assist in all facets of the Cambridge campus to help fill any gaps.
- Other duties as assigned.
