

Job Description

Position Title: Director of Sports Ministries

Reports To: Executive Pastor

Revised: 08.16.2021

Department: Sports Ministries

Status: Full-Time, Salaried, exempt

Campus: Campus Support Team

Primary Purpose

The NewPointe Director of Sports Ministries will contribute to NewPointe's mission of leading people to realize and reach their full potential in Jesus Christ by developing and leading a multi-site ministry that exists to connect families to NewPointe through sports. NewPointe's Sport Ministries provide a comprehensive program that not only develops the skills of players, but also comes alongside the parents to help form a foundation that will develop character and integrity. The Director of Sports Ministries is a high caliber leader who serves as the "face" of NewPointe's Sports Ministries and is primarily responsible for all ministry teams, programs, and volunteers across the ministry. This includes the role of building teams, identifying leaders, managing for quality, solving problems, championing the DNA and mission of NewPointe, and ultimately inspiring people to follow Jesus Christ.

Essential Functions/Key Result Areas (KRAs)

- Promote the unity of one church in multiple locations by developing Sports Ministries across NewPointe that align with organization's mission, vision, and values
- Identify, equip, empower, value and care for a team of high-capacity ministry leaders to provide direction, growth, and multiplication of their respective areas of ministry through maintaining open lines of communication and personal involvement in their lives and ministries
- Recruit and train a volunteer base of sport-specific coaches
- Develop and implement sports ministry curricula
- Oversee programming of leagues such field and team scheduling, forecasting support needs, and budget management
- Manage Sports Ministries facilities and equipment inventory
- Lead in communication with coaches
- Set the spiritual direction of Sports Ministries with coaches and players through More Than A Game program
- Integrate the Sports ministry with NP Groups, NP Kids, and NP Students ministries
- Display commitment to excellence and sensitivity to misses with a focus on identifying and exploring areas of improvement and implementing change
- Other duties as assigned
